DEPOSITION AND LETTERS ARE LOST

'Candy Trust' Suit May Be Delayed On This Account.

Lost depositions and letters in the case of the National Candy Company, commonly known as the "Candy Trust," vs. J. Oswald Lutted, created a good deal of interest in Judge De Bolt's Court this morning. The suit is for the balance of an alleged bill to the amount of $600. The case was tried more before and interest. tried once before and judgment was given against Lutted in the sum of $300, this, however, being set aside by the Court because of a lack of suffi-

the Court because of a lack of sum-cient evidence.

At the end of this trial the letters and one deposition, which were ent-cred as evidence, were placed on file This morning when a search was made for them, they could not be found. Fred Milverton appears for Lutted and W. W. Thayer for the candy company.

JUDGE DOLE GIVES WITNESS FREEDOM

Lawyer McBride won a partial vic-tory in the contempt case in which he has been appearing for the defense this morning when Judge Dole ren-dered an oral decision allowing Ka-pele, a defaulting witness, to go free because an order to show cause for not obeying the subpoena of the Court had not been made out, accom-nanced by affidayit.

panied by affidavit. United States District Attorney Breckons will immediately have the man re-arrested, as he was let out by virtue of a technicality, brought out by McBride in his argument. Judge Dole stated that he had found it the custom in the States to make out an order to show cause in such cases, and, being supported by a Supreme Court decision, he rendered his deci-
